Diary Times Desk : Bihar police's Economic Offence Unit (EOU) has arrested the alleged mastermind in the 2024 The National Eligibility cum Entrance Test (NEET) UG paper leak case. Sanjeev Mukhia, the alleged mastermind, is also suspected of involvement in multiple exam leak cases, news agency ANI reported.

Mukhiya's arrest was confirmed by Nayyar Husnain Khan, additional director general of the EOU, who was arrested on Thursday night. Earlier on April 9, Bihar police announced cash rewards between ₹1 lakh and ₹3 lakh for those assisting in arresting the accused Mukhia and his associates, Shubham Kumar and Rajkishore Kumar Shah. The investigation revealed that on May 5, 2024, the NEET UG question paper was stolen from the control room of the OASIS School in Hazaribagh.

According to a Hindustan Times report, the officials from the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) were also present during the interrogation to question the accused. Citing officials, the report said that the accused was hiding in an apartment at Sarguna More near Danapur police station. The report mentions probing agencies, including EOU and CBI, were unable to track Mukhia, months after filing a case against him. Agencies involved in the investigation have found that Mukhia's gang operates across multiple states, including Rajasthan, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, and Punjab. Mukhia's gang is also suspected of involvement in leaking question papers for multiple recruitment examinations, such as those for veterinary doctors and English teachers in Haryana, along with other tests held in Uttar Pradesh.

OVER 1,100 TOURISTS RESCUED IN LANDSLIDE-HIT
SIKKIM, 1,800 STRANDED

Diary Times Desk : Around 1,100 tourists stranded in north Sikkim's Chungthang town following landslides were evacuated by the authorities on Friday, while 1,800 others are awaiting rescue from two other popular hill stations in Mangan district, officials said.

The administration is bringing the evacuated travellers to the state capital Gangtok, around 100 km from Chungthang. Those tourists, who spent Thursday night in a gurdwara, left in about 200 vehicles, officials said. From Chungthang, the vehicles reached Mangan, the district headquarters, via a reconstructed bailey bridge at Sangkalang which was opened for traffic movement.

Officials said that efforts were also on to clear the roads as fast as possible to evacuate around 1,800 other tourists stuck in Lachung and Lachen. Roads to Lachen and Lachung remained closed due to mudslides caused by heavy rainfall on Thursday evening. Tourists need to travel via Chungthang to reach Lachung and Lachen, hill stations known for their natural beauty and proximity to popular tourist destinations like Gurudongmar Lake and Yumthang Valley.

The district administration has made all necessary arrangements to ensure the well-being of the tourists stranded in Lachung and Lachen. Meanwhile, Sikkim Governor Om Prakash Mathur said that all tourists are safe in various places in north Sikkim. Chief Minister Prem Singh Tamang has been personally supervising the rescue operations of the stranded tourists, he said. In a related development, the Mangan district administration has announced suspension of all tourist permits for the time being. Permits already issued for travel have been declared invalid, officials said, adding the tour operators have been instructed not to send any tourists northward until further notice.

CENTRE DEFENDS WAQF ACT IN SUPREME COURT; SAYS IT WAS NEEDED TO CURB LAND GRAB

Diary Times Desk : The Centre on Friday defended the Waqf (Amendment) Act, 2025, before the Supreme Court, saying it was needed to curb the misuse of Waqf law provisions to encroach private and government land. In an affidavit filed in response to petitions challenging the amendment, the Centre defended abolition of 'waqf by user' and inclusion of non-Muslims in the Central Waqf Council and State Waqf Boards. Regarding abolition of 'waqf by user,' it said despite there being a regime of mandatory registration for all kinds of waqf since 1923, individuals or organisations used to claim private lands and government lands as waqf. Such claims "not only lead to deprivation of valuable property rights of individual citizens but similarly unauthorised claims over public properties," it contended. "Waqf by user does not deprive a person of the Muslim community to create a waqf. It impinges on the form by which such a dedication is to be made, which is the secular dimension of the dedication, and not the right of an individual to dedicate his or her property to God," it contended.

Mr Gandhi will face consequences if he persists, the court said, "We won't allow any statements against our freedom fighters. Next, someone will say Mahatma Gandhi was a 'servant to the British'." Does your client know Gandhi also used 'your faithful servant' while addressing the Viceroy? Does your client know his grandmother, when she was Prime Minister, sent a letter praising the gentleman?" In further strong comments, the court also said, "They gave us freedom and you treat them like this..." and labelled Mr Gandhi's earlier comment on Savarkar "irresponsible".

'DOING DIRTY WORK FOR US, WEST...': PAK MINISTER ADMITS TO FUNDING TERRORISM

Diary Times Desk : Pakistan's defence minister admitted to doing "dirty work" for the US and the West when asked whether Islamabad has a history of funding and backing terror groups. Khwaja M Asif was speaking to British news network Sky News. During the interview, the minister was asked, "Do you admit, sir, that Pakistan has had a long history of backing and supporting and training and funding these terrorist organizations?" To which the Pakistani minister said, "We have been doing this dirty work for the US for the past three decades, including the West and the United Kingdom." However, he was quick to call it a "mistake" and said Pakistan "suffered because of that." He added that Pakistan's track record would have been "unimpeachable" had Islamabad not joined the West during the Soviet-Afghan war and the US-led war against the Taliban after 9/11. The Pakistan minister's admission of doing "dirty work" by backing terrorists for the US and West comes in the wake of the Pahalgam terror attack in which 26 innocent civilians were shot dead at a picnic spot in Baisaran valley. Pakistan supported the United States in the Soviet-Afghan war by training and harbouring armed militants to fight the Soviets. The proxy war between the US and the Soviets gave Pakistan an important role.

They came from Pakistan and are backed by Pakistan's ISI and establishment." MUSLIM MEMBERS WILL FORM OVERWHELMING MAJORITY IN WAQF BODIES: CENTRE

Diary Times Desk : The Centre on Friday in the Supreme Court denied the claim that Muslims will be in the minority in waqf bodies under the amended law and said they will comprise an "overwhelming majority". In a 1,332-page preliminary counter affidavit, the Centre's Ministry of Minority Affairs referred to the provisions relating to the constitution of the Central Waqf Council and the State Waqf Boards and justified the inclusion of non-Muslims saying unlike other religious boards, they also performed secular activities such as running hospitals and schools. "Muslim members will form an overwhelming majority of the board," its affidavit said. The affidavit said in the amended act the CWC comprises a total of 22 members of which a maximum of four can be non-Muslims. "The non-Muslim members are clearly, therefore, in minority," it argued. SWBs, on the other hand, comprises a total of 11 members of which a maximum of three can be non-Muslims.

"DOCUMENTS MISSING IN CHARGESHEET": COURT TO PROBE AGENCY ED IN HERALD CASE

Diary Times Desk : A Delhi court on Friday refused to issue notice to Congress leaders Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi and others in the National Herald money laundering case for now. Special judge Vishal Gogne was acting on a plea of the Enforcement Directorate (ED), which claimed cognisance of the complaint (ED's equivalent to a chargesheet) cannot be taken without hearing the accused according to the new provisions of law. "Don't want this order to be prolonged. Let notice be issued," ED told the court. The judge, however, said before the court is satisfied that notice is required, it couldn't "pass such an order". Before court passes any order, it has to see if there is any deficiency, the judge added. "There are certain documents missing in the chargesheet as highlighted by the Ahlmad. ED is directed to file those documents. After that the court will decide the issue of notice," the court said. The ED said it was "very transparent". "Not hiding anything. Giving chance to them to come."

ACTIVIST MEDHA PATKAR RELEASED HOURS AFTER ARREST IN DEFAMATION CASE

Diary Times Desk : Social activist Medha Patkar was released on Friday after directions from a Delhi court. She was released at 4:30 pm, just hours after her arrest in connection with a defamation case filed by Delhi Lieutenant Governor V K Saxena. Additional Sessions Judge Vipin Kharb directed her release after she deposited the bail bond as directed by the court. Saxena's counsel, however, opposed the acceptance of her bail bond by the Court, stating that it was due to coercive action that she was furnishing the bail bond rather than voluntarily and therefore it should not be accepted. Patkar was taken into custody for failing to comply with a earlier court order to furnish a probation bond and pay a ₹1 lakh fine in the case. Earlier this month, Additional Sessions Judge Vishal Singh had convicted the 70-year-old activist and granted her probation on the condition of good conduct, paired with a ₹1 lakh fine. However, her absence from the hearing on April 23 and failure to meet the court's directives led to the issuance.

"SHOT MY FATHER, POINTED GUN AT ME, LEFT": WOMAN RECOUNTS PAHALGAM HORROR

Diary Times Desk : A Kerala woman, her father and twin sons were enjoying a horse ride in the scenic Baisaran meadow on the second day of their Jammu and Kashmir trip, when gunshots rang through the Valley. People ran towards possible safe locations and screams echoed as a horrific terror attack unfolded in Jammu and Kashmir's Pahalgam. Amid the chaos, Arathi and her family jumped off the horses and crawled through a fence, relieved to be in a safe spot. She looked sideways to see an armed man approaching groups of people, asking them a question and then shooting at them. As the Kochi native looked for another spot where they could hide from the terrorists, her father N Ramachandram remained calm and asked her to stay put. "The man came towards us and said 'Kalima' (an Islamic verse). When we said we didn't understand what he was saying, he shot my father," she told reporters.

SENIOR RUSSIAN MILITARY OFFICER
KILLED IN CAR EXPLOSION: REPORT

There was no immediate official confirmation from the authorities of what happened or details about the identity of the officer targeted. Russian media outlet Baza, which has sources in Russia's law enforcement agencies, said a bomb in a parked car had been detonated remotely when the officer - who lived locally - walked past.

'REWRITE THE RULES': TRUMP
STORE SELLS 2028 HATS, TEASING
THIRD PRESIDENTIAL TERM

Diary Times Desk : The Trump Organization's online store has launched a new $50 red cap boldly embroidered with "Trump 2028", fueling speculation - and controversy - over Trump's repeated hints at seeking a third term in office. "The future looks bright! Rewrite the rules with the Trump 2028 high crown hat," read the initial product description on the website before it was later toned down. The revised listing now calls it: "A statement piece... made in America... your new go-to hat," reports New York Post. The hats are not being sold by Trump's official campaign but through the Trump Organization, his family-run business. A photo posted by the Trump campaign's Trump War Room account showed Eric Trump proudly sporting the cap. The message behind the merchandise appears to riff on the 22nd Amendment of the US Constitution, which states unequivocally: "No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice." However, in a March interview on NBC's "Meet the Press" Trump said that he's "not joking" about a possible third term. "A lot of people want me to do it," he told the interviewer. "We have a long way to go it's very early in the administration." That statement came shortly after he returned to the White House for a second term following his 2024 election win. From "Make Greenland Great Again" tees to Trump-branded Bibles.

US UNIVERSITIES HELP FOREIGN STUDENTS WEATHER TRUMP DEPORTATIONS

Diary Times Desk : From warnings not to leave the country to guidance on how to complete degrees, U.S. universities are advising foreign students how to withstand President Donald Trump's immigration crackdown. First immigration agents arrested students involved in pro-Palestinian protests. Then thousands of foreign students were targeted for deportation over minor offenses and arrests. Now, some university advisors are quietly telling students from abroad to hire a lawyer and keep attending classes while legal appeals play out, according to over two dozen students, immigration attorneys and university officials Reuters spoke to. University faculty have gone to court to question the constitutionality of arrests. With a record 1.1 million foreign students in the country, at stake is the $44 billion they contributed to the U.S. economy last year, according to the Association of American Universities, a higher education advocacy group. It's not just the money. MIT President Sally Kornbluth pointed to global talent, saying hers "is an American university, proudly so - but we would be gravely diminished without the students and scholars who join us from other nations."

POPE FRANCIS'S FUNERAL TO BE LESS COSTLY THAN HIS PREDECESSORS'

Diary Times Desk : As hundreds of millions of people around the world mourn the passing of Pope Francis, the Roman Catholic Church is preparing to lay him to rest - an event expected to draw hundreds of thousands of mourners even as costs are likely to be significantly less than those of his predecessors. Francis's body has been lying in state since Wednesday at St Peter's Basilica, allowing the faithful to pay their respects. World leaders, including United States President Donald Trump, are also expected at the Vatican to attend his funeral, which is slated for Saturday morning. Unlike his predecessors, Francis requested a more modest burial. In 2024, he changed the longstanding burial rules that required three coffins - two made of cypress and oak, and one of lead, one inside the other. Under the new rules, popes can now be buried in a single coffin made of wood and lined with zinc. The rule change also allows for burial outside the Vatican, per Francis's wishes.

TRUMP CLAIMS XI CALLED HIM, HINTS
AT 'TOTAL VICTORY' IN TARIFF TALKS

Diary Times Desk : US President Donald Trump said his administration is in talks with China to strike a tariff deal and that Chinese President Xi Jinping has called him recently, according to a Time magazine interview published Friday. "He's called. And I don't think that's a sign of weakness on his behalf," Trump told Time, though he did not specify when the call occurred or what was discussed. China on Friday denied Trump's claim saying, "US should stop creating confusion." "China and the US are NOT having any consultation or negotiation on #tariffs. The US should stop creating confusion," according to a foreign ministry statement posted on X. Earlier in the day, Beijing's Foreign Ministry had urged the Washington to stop "misleading the public" regarding the nature of the trade discussions, signaling frustration over US' portrayal of the talks. Trump in the interview also told that he expects to wrap up US tariff deals within the next 3 to 4 weeks.

PENTAGON FACES $200
SHOOT DOWN 7 US REAPER
DRONES

Diary Times Desk : Houthi rebels in Yemen have shot down seven US Reaper drones in less than six weeks, a loss of aircraft worth more than USD 200 million in what is becoming the most dramatic cost to the Pentagon of the military campaign against the Iran-backed militants. According to defence officials, three of the drones were shot down in the past week - suggesting the militants' targeting of the unmanned aircraft flying over Yemen has improved. The drones were doing attack runs or conducting surveillance, and they crashed both into the water and onto land, said the officials, who spoke on condition of anonymity to discuss military operations. The US has increased its attacks on the Houthis, launching daily strikes since March 15, when President Donald Trump ordered a new, expanded campaign. He promised to use "overwhelming lethal force" until the Houthis cease their attacks on shipping along a vital maritime corridor. The US has done more than 750 strikes on the Houthis since that new effort began. Another defence official said that although hostile fire is likely the cause of the drone losses, the incidents are still under investigation.

US TO OFFER SAUDI ARABIA
$100BN WEAPONS DEAL AS
TRUMP VISIT PLANNED: REPORT

Diary Times Desk : The United States is poised to offer Saudi Arabia an arms package worth more than $100bn, the Reuters news agency reports, citing six sources familiar with the matter. The deal is reportedly in the works in advance of a planned trip by US President Donald Trump to Saudi Arabia, Qatar and the United Arab Emirates next month, Reuters reported on Thursday. Top defence contractors such as Lockheed Martin, RTX Corp, Boeing, Northrop Grumman and General Atomics are reported to be involved in the supply of advanced weapons systems, according to Reuters, and several executives from the companies are expected to join Trump's delegation for the visit. The sources cited by Reuters say the contractor could see Riyadh supplied with a range of weapons including C-130 transport aircraft, missiles and radar systems. It is unlikely, however, that Saudi Arabia will gain access to Lockheed Martin's F-35 fighter jet. Only a select number of countries can buy F-35s from the US, such as NATO allies, Japan, South Korea and Australia. Trump's predecessor, President Joe Biden, tried unsuccessfully to sign.

INDIA-PAKISTAN TENSIONS PUT KARTARPUR CORRIDOR'S FUTURE IN DOUBT

Diary Times Desk : The Kartarpur corridor project's future hangs in the balance amid escalating India-Pakistan tensions following the Pahalgam terror ambush. Despite the uncertainty, the corridor remained open today, with pilgrims visiting as usual. However, the Indian government has yet to clarify whether the project will continue or be suspended. Sources indicate that the BJP-led Union Government faces a tough decision regarding the project's future. The party is keen to strengthen its presence in Punjab, where Sikh support is crucial. Given the Kartarpur corridor's significance to Sikhs and Sikhism, altering its status could impact the party's relationship with the Sikh community. Meanwhile, Pakistan stands to lose substantial revenue if the corridor is closed. The country charges a USD 20 fee per pilgrim at Pakistani Integrated Check Post (ICP), generating significant income from the 200-400 daily visitors, particularly on weekends. Despite India's repeated requests to waive this fee, Pakistan remains resolute.

Diary Times Desk : The Pakistani flag on the historic table at Raj Bhawan here, on which the Simla Accord was signed, was conspicuous by its absence on Friday morning, a day after Pakistan suspended the agreement signed in 1972. The suspension of the Simla Accord by Pakistan was in response to retaliatory actions taken by India in the aftermath of the massacre of 26 tourists in Pahalgam in a brutal terrorist attack on Tuesday. The pact was signed by the then Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and Pakistan President Zulfikar Ali Bhutto on the intervening night of July 2 and 3. The glossy wooden table on which the agreement was signed is kept in the Kirti Hall of the Himachal Pradesh Raj Bhawan on an elevated red-coloured platform cordoned off with brass railings with a plate which reads -- "Simla Agreement was signed here on 3-7-1972". A photograph of Bhutto signing the agreement and Indira Gandhi sitting beside him is kept on the table, while several other photographs of the India-Pakistan Summit of 1972 hang on the wall in the background. While it is not clear when the Pakistan flag was removed, Raj Bhawan officials confirmed that the flag of the neighbouring country "is not on the table" for quite some time now.

Diary Times Desk : A three-pronged performance from Kamindu Mendis and Harshal Patel's use of the middle of the pitch led Sunrisers Hyderabad to win their first-ever match against Chennai Super Kings in Chennai, a win SRH will hope revives a faltering campaign. Dewald Brevis, on his CSK debut, and Ayush Mhatre, the youngest CSK player ever in only his second life, threatened to inject some freshness into a stale CSK campaign, but the 154 they took CSK to was not enough in the heavy dew even though they did give SRH a scare on the dry pitch.

BATTING AROUND VIRAT KOHLI: AARON FINCH LAUDS RCB'S IPL 2025 STRATEGY

Diary Times Desk : Aaron Finch has praised RCB's strategy of batting around Virat Kohli in IPL 2025 as the Bengaluru franchise continues their fine run of form. It is no surprise that RCB's impressive run this season has coincided with Kohli's form as the star batter has led from the front. Kohli has scored 392 runs in 9 matches and has five fifties to his name. The latest one came in the win over RR as Kohli's 70 off 46 balls helped RCB secure an 11-run victory. Speaking to Cricinfo, Finch said that when a batter like Kohli in the top three is offering the team 650-700 runs every season, the rest of the team can build around it and excel. "Yes, I mean, if you are offered 650, 700 runs at the start of the year, from one of your top-three batters. No matter whether your strike rate is 150 or 200, you would take that every single day because that just allows your team the platform to play around," said Finch.

SUNIL GAVASKAR NAMED DROPS RAHUL DRAVID IN BRUTAL VERDICT ON RAJASTHAN ROYALS: "UNTHINKABLE CRICKET..."

Diary Times Desk : Rajasthan Royals slumped to their fifth straight loss as they were beaten by Royal Challengers Bengaluru on Thursday. RR found themselves in a good position with solid knocks from Yashasvi Jaiswal and Dhruv Jurel but with 18 runs needed to win from 12 balls, the team completely lost the plot. RR ended up scoring just one run from the penultimate over bowled by Josh Hazlewood and were beaten by 11 runs. This was yet another narrow loss for RR after similar results against Delhi Capitals and Lucknow Super Giants. Legendary India batter Sunil Gavaskar was not happy with the team's performance and he namedropped head coach Rahul Dravid in his brutal verdict. "With Rajasthan Royals, I'm actually talking about the earlier matches where I wasn't at the ground—I just saw them. So, you're not always able to get the feeling of what's really happening. But here, I was at the ground, and you could actually see the kind of cricket that was being played. And with someone like Rahul Dravid as the coach, it was quite baffling—it was unthinking cricket. Dravid was always so precise in his thinking, and I would've thought that kind of approach would've seeped into some of the Rajasthan batters," Gavaskar said on Star Sports.

EX-PAKISTAN STAR HINTS AT MATCH FIXING IN IPL 2025, SHARES CLIP OF THIS DISMISSAL

Diary Times Desk : Former Pakistan pacer Junaid Khan grabbed the limelight once again on Thursday after he hinted at possible match-fixing in the ongoing IPL 2025. Junaid's remarks came after Sunrisers Hyderabad batter Ishan Kishan was controversially dismissed against Mumbai Indians during the IPL 2025 match on Wednesday. In the third over by pacer Deepak Chahar, Kishan tried to play a shot towards the leg side but ended up missing it. Wicket-keeper Ryan Rickelton collected it behind the stumps and Kishan decided to walk back to the dugout despite no appeals from the MI players. On-field umpire Vinod Seshan was going to signal wide but decided to raise his finger in an instant as Kishan walked back. Later in the replay, it was shown that Kishan was actually not out as the ball did not make any connection with the bat. Taking to X (formerly Twitter), Junaid posted a video of Ishan's dismissal and captioned it, "Daal mein kuch kaala hai (Something is suspicious)." However, this is not the first time that IPL 2025 came under the accusations of match-fixing. Last week, ad-hoc committee convener Jaydeep Bihani had accused Rajasthan Royals for the same after their loss against Lucknow Super Giants. Following two successive narrow defeats from winning positions, RCA convener Bihani had alleged that Rajasthan Royals were involved.

SANJU SAMSON'S ABSENCE COSTING RR: SANDEEP SHARMA AFTER FIFTH STRAIGHT DEFEAT

Diary Times Desk : Rajasthan Royals pacer Sandeep Sharma discussed how the absence of their regular skipper Sanju Samson due to injury—along with recurring batting and fielding mishaps—has cost the side dearly in IPL 2025. After RR were handed their fifth straight defeat of the season by Royal Challengers Bengaluru on April 24, Sandeep Sharma rued missed catches and the batting unit's failure to click, adding that the absence of Samson's experience has only worsened their forgettable season. RCB handed an 11-run defeat to RR on Thursday in a match that did not feature regular skipper Samson, who is nursing a side tear. The absence of the captain added to the pressure on a team already under the pump this season. Speaking at the post-match press conference, Sandeep explained how the team has been missing Samson's captaincy and experienced batting, which could have helped settle the side amidst ongoing struggles.

JOSH HAZLEWOOD PRAISES 'GENIUS' JITESH SHARMA FOR GAME-CHANGING DRS CALL VS RR

Diary Times Desk : Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB) seamer Josh Hazlewood has praised wicketkeeper batter Jitesh Sharma for his game-changing DRS call against Rajasthan Royals (RR) in Match 43 of the Indian Premier League 2025 (IPL 2025). Jitesh asked captain Rajat Patidar to opt for DRS in the penultimate over as he sensed that Dhruv Jurel edged the ball on the third delivery. After collecting the ball, Sharma immediately went to his captain asking for a review and the decision was vindicated as ultra edge confirmed that Jurel edged the ball. As a result, Jurel had to walk back to the pavilion for 47 (34). The moment turned out to be the deciding factor in the game as RCB managed to win by 11 runs. Following his team's victory, Hazlewood praised Sharma for going for DRS, calling him a genius. Earlier, he helped him dismiss Ryan Rickelton against Mumbai Indians (MI) with the DRS call. "Jitesh is a genius. He has done a few for me throughout the tournament. One with MI with the lbw, and that one tonight. The first win here is massive for the crowd, the home fans. To hit 200 on that wicket as a batting unit was phenomenal. I mixed it up with yorkers here and there, but we took wickets throughout, which was important as well," said Hazlewood in a video shared by IPL.
